

RESOURCES

careersINsite

TechPoint

Intech Two, 6650 Telecom Drive, Ste. 175

Indianapolis, IN 46278

317/275-2093

Fax: 317/275-2081

www.careersINsite.org

careersINsite is an innovative Indiana program designed to encourage college graduates with technically oriented degrees to stay in the state and to attract technical graduates from other Midwest states to Indiana. The overriding goal is to increase the number of highly skilled workers in the state and continue to grow Indiana's high-tech industries, which include life sciences, advanced manufacturing, information technology and 21st Century logistics. careersINsite serves students, Indiana businesses employing technical individuals, and college and university staff and faculty.

Center for Interactive Learning and Collaboration

251 East Ohio Street, Ste. 960

Indianapolis, IN 46204

317/231-6525

Fax: 317/231-6530

www.cilc.org

The Center for Interactive Learning and Collaboration (CILC) is a dynamic organization committed to advancing communication, collaboration, and learning through video conferencing. CILC is a content destination renowned for its comprehensive, K-12 standards-based programming, professional development, community partnerships and more.

Center for Leadership Development

3536 Washington Boulevard

Indianapolis, IN 46205

317/923-8111

www.cldinc.org

The Center for Leadership Development (CLD) is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to foster the advancement of minority youth in central Indiana as future professional, business and community leaders by providing experiences that encourage personal development and educational attainment. CLD is a national leader in youth development with a 26-year history of innovative programming.

Center for Urban Policy and the Environment

342 North Senate Avenue

Indianapolis, IN 46204

317/261-3000

Fax: 317/261-3050

www.urbancenter.iupui.edu

The Center for Urban Policy and the Environment is a nonpartisan, non-ideological research organization in the School of Public and Environmental Affairs at IUPUI. Faculty and staff with expertise in program evaluation, policy analysis, planning and facilitation work with governmental agencies, nonprofit organizations and private businesses on a wide variety of policy issues. Current research is focused on investment strategies to enhance quality of life in Indiana.

Center of Excellence in Leadership of Learning/University of Indianapolis

21 Virginia Avenue
Indianapolis, IN 46204
317/791-5910
Fax: 317/791-5925
<http://cell.uindy.edu>

The mission of the Center of Excellence in Leadership of Learning (CELL) at the University of Indianapolis is to foster leadership of learning at all levels, K-16. In order to achieve this goal, which is focused on student learning, CELL will partner and collaborate with a number of stakeholders including educators, community leaders, school board members, parents, and businesspersons.

Center on Philanthropy at Indiana University

550 West North Street, Ste. 301
Indianapolis, IN 46202
317/684-8901
www.philanthropy.iupui.edu

The Center on Philanthropy at Indiana University is a leading academic center dedicated to increasing the understanding of philanthropy and improving its practice through research, teaching, public service and public affairs programs in philanthropy, fund-raising and management of nonprofit organizations.

Center on School, Family, and Community Partnerships
Johns Hopkins University

3003 North Charles Street, Ste. 200
Baltimore, MD 21218
410/516-8800
Fax: 410/516-8890
www.partnershipschools.org

The National Network of Partnership Schools (NNPS) at Johns Hopkins University assists schools, districts and states to use research-based approaches to strengthen and sustain programs of school, family and community partnerships to increase student success. NNPS provides training, handbooks, newsletters and ongoing assistance.

The Children's Museum of Indianapolis

3000 North Meridian Street
Indianapolis, IN 46208
317/334-3322
Fax: 317/921-4019
www.ChildrensMuseum.org

The Children's Museum of Indianapolis, a nonprofit institution committed to enriching the lives of children, is one of the largest children's museums in the world. The 356,000-square-foot facility houses 10 major galleries that explore the physical and natural sciences, history, world cultures and the arts. The Children's Museum is a place to learn and do. Whenever possible, exhibits are "hands-on" or participatory in nature. The Children's Museum strives to be one of the vital links in the lives of children as it supports their intellectual curiosity and love of learning. The museum, situated on 13 acres of land in Indianapolis, presents thousands of programs and activities each year.

Goodwill Industries of Central Indiana

1635 West Michigan Street

Indianapolis, IN 46222

317/524-4347

Fax: 317/ 524-4519

www.goodwill-indy.org

Goodwill Industries is a community resource that offers opportunities, provides services and leverages its resources and capabilities with those of others – including units of government, employers, education and training organizations, private philanthropies and other entities – to improve the education, skills, employability and economic self-sufficiency of adults and the future employability of young people who are at high risk of dropping out of school.

Homework Hotline

Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology

5500 Wabash Avenue

Terre Haute, IN 47803

812/877-8319

Fax: 812/877-8175

www.askrose.org

Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology's Homework Hotline is a free math and science tutoring service for Indiana middle and high school students. The program reinforces math and science concepts and helps students develop better problem-solving skills. Students may call toll free (877) ASK-ROSE Sunday through Thursday from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. or gain access to resource materials and submit questions at the Web site.

Indiana 4-H Foundation

225 South East Street, Ste. 760

Indianapolis, IN 46202

317/692-7047

Fax: 317/692-7042

www.4h.org

Chartered in 1961, the Indiana 4-H Foundation continues to support the statewide 4-H program, which reaches 300,000 youth mentored by 20,000 adult volunteers in 7,400 clubs and enrichment units. The vision of the foundation is "to create and enhance growth and recognition opportunities for 4-H'ers and their leaders so that they may develop the hallmarks of successful citizens with responsibility, leadership and integrity." Through 4-H, youth gain valuable leadership skills, develop decision-making capacity, increase their appreciation for community involvement and learn to set goals, plan projects and solve problems.

Indiana Higher Education

Telecommunication System

714 North Senate Avenue

Indianapolis, IN 46202

317/263-8926

Fax: 317/263-8831

www.ihets.org

The Indiana Higher Education Telecommunication System (IHETS) is a state-supported consortium of Indiana's higher education institutions operating technology networks, managing the state's virtual university and pursuing applications research and development. IHETS' mission is to enhance the educational, social and economic development of Indiana citizens through effective and collaborative use of technology.

Indiana Humanities Council

1500 North Delaware Street
Indianapolis, IN 46202
317/638-1500
Fax: 317/634-9503
www.ihc4u.org/desktop.htm

The Indiana Humanities Council is dedicated to strengthening communities through leadership, education and culture. In light of increased accountability for schools, The Smart Desktop[™] is a Web portal that will allow teachers to identify students' needs in relationship to the Indiana Academic Standards, plan targeted instruction and conduct standards-based assessments.

Indiana INTERNnet Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce

111 Monument Circle, Ste. 1950
Indianapolis, IN 46204
317/464-2245
Fax: 317/464-2217
www.indianaintern.net

The Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce and University of Indianapolis developed the Indiana INTERNnet initiative. Indiana INTERNnet is a system for increasing and expanding the use of internships and other experiential learning programs among businesses, colleges and universities in Indiana. The goal is to retain college graduates by providing them the tools, accessibility and information needed for success.

Indiana Nonprofit Resource Network
Indiana Association of United Ways

3901 North Meridian Street, Ste. 306
Indianapolis, IN 46208
317/923-2377
Fax: 317/921-1397
www.iauw.org

The network provides affordable private and public workshops, board retreats and consultant referral for nonprofit organizations anywhere in the state. Topics range from cutting edge to basic content. The network is coordinated by the Indiana Association of United Ways.

Indiana Online Academy
Ben Davis High School

1200 North Girls School Road
Indianapolis, IN 46214
317/227-4496
Fax: 317/227-4025
www.ioa.k12.in.us

The Indiana Online Academy (IOA) has been meeting numerous learning needs for hundreds of Indiana high school students since the spring of 2000. IOA courses are based on Indiana standards and are taught by certified Indiana teachers. Students and teachers from more than 40 different Indiana schools already have participated.

Indiana Youth Institute

603 East Washington Street, Ste. 800

Indianapolis, IN 46204

317/396-2700

Fax: 317/396-2701

www.iyi.org

The Indiana Youth Institute (IYI) promotes the healthy development of children and youth by serving the institutions and people of Indiana who work on their behalf. IYI is a leading source of useful information and practical tools for nonprofit youth workers, educators, policy-makers, government officials and others who can impact the lives of children.

International Center of Indianapolis

32 East Washington Street, Ste. 1625

Indianapolis, IN 46204

317/955-5150

Fax: 317/955-5160

www.icenterindy.org

Established by community leaders in 1973, the International Center of Indianapolis (ICI) is a not-for-profit organization that assists citizens facing cultural challenges and is a key provider of resources and programs that help make central Indiana a welcoming place for newcomers from around the world.

Ivy Tech State College

One West 26th Street

Indianapolis, IN 46208

317/921-4800

Fax: 317/921-4246

www.ivytech.edu

Founded in 1963, Ivy Tech State College is the second largest college in the state, granting associate degrees and certificates in business, general education, health sciences, public services, technology and visual communications.

More than 13,000 students are enrolled at Ivy Tech-Central Indiana, taking day, evening and weekend classes at 16 locations throughout the region.

Middle Grades Reading NetworkUniversity of Evansville

1800 Lincoln Avenue

Evansville, IN 47722

812/423-5570

Fax: 812/423-6034

www2.evansville.edu/mgrnweb/

The ultimate goal of the Middle Grades Reading Network is the creation of communities of readers where each young adolescent will be able to fulfill his or her potential as a reader. The Network works with 443 Indiana middle grades schools and their communities to support proficient and independent reading.

National FFA Foundation

6060 FFA Drive
Indianapolis, IN 46268
317/802-4244
Fax: 317/802-5244
www.ffa.org

The National FFA Foundation is a youth development organization serving more than 461,000 members in 7,308 chapters across the United States, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education.

Parent Leadership Associates
Prichard Committee for Academic Excellence

P.O. Box 1658
Lexington, KY 40588
859/233-9849
Fax: 859/233-0760
www.plassociates.org

Parent Leadership Associates offers education leaders and communities the assistance they need to effectively inform and involve parents to have an impact on student achievement.

The Possibility Network
Indiana Wesleyan University

4301 South Washington Street
Marion, IN 46953
765/677-2058
Fax: 765/677-2673
www.IndianaLearn.com

The Possibility Network provides resources and tools that help adults pursue lifelong learning opportunities. The network consists of almost 50 educational providers that offer more than 10,000 courses and 700 programs ranging from the GED to Ph.D. The Possibility Network Web site helps connect adults with these courses and programs and provides them with powerful tools for managing their learning experience.

PRISM Project
Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology

5500 Wabash Avenue
Terre Haute, IN 47803
812/877-6266 or 866/242-3797
Fax: 812/877-8107
www.rose-prism.org

PRISM (Portal Resources for Indiana Science and Mathematics) is a free, Web-delivered "window" on digital resources for middle school teachers of science, mathematics and computer literacy. The project is hosted at Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology.

Youth Philanthropy Initiative of Indiana
Indiana Grantmakers Alliance

32 East Washington Street, Ste. 1100

Indianapolis, IN 46204

317/630-5200

Fax: 317/630-5210

www.ypin.org

Youth Philanthropy Initiative of Indiana (YPII) is a network of organizations with a common goal of educating/involving youth in philanthropy. YPII partner Learning to Give is a statewide program integrating the understanding and practice of philanthropy into the K-12 curriculum. Administration for YPII is based at the Indiana Grantmakers Alliance.